Soweto

The Capital of the country's freedom fighters. Encounter different social communities of this interesting township. Visit Mandela House, the home of the late Desmond Tutu, the Hector Peterson museum (Soweto uprising), & Freedom Square where our constitution was born.

Price: R1500.00 pp for full day

Apartheid Museum

This is the museum that lays bare the nightmare that Apartheid was. A well put together museum, using text panels, photographs and monitors playing hours of footage recorded by brave people who risked their lives to expose the horror experienced by South Africans under one of worst systems humans had to endure.

Price: R800.00 pp (min 2 people)

Constitution Hill

Initially built as a fort and got to be known for the incarceration of numbers of people for breaking Apartheid laws. Take a tour of a prison that locked up people like Mahatma Gandhi and Nelson Mandela as well as many known South African men and women who contributed to the liberation of this country.

Price: R700.00 pp (min 2 people)

Pilansberg National Park

Discover the Pilanesberg Game Reserve, a wildlife haven nestled within an ancient volcanic crater. Home to the Big Five and over 360 bird species, this stunning reserve offers a unique safari experience just a few hours from Johannesburg. Explore the diverse landscapes, from rolling savannahs to rugged mountains, and immerse yourself in the beauty of untamed Africa. Perfect for nature lovers & adventure seekers
